

Type your answers to these 20 questions into an email and send to:

info@mcloughlin-scar-release.com

An 80% pass mark for the exam is needed.

Allow 7 days for a reply from your instructor. Contact us again if you do not receive a reply within that time.

Good luck!

At the beginning of your email reply please add:

(1) YOUR NAME, (2) YOUR EMAIL ADDRESS and (3) NAME OF YOUR INSTRUCTOR

1	What three vitally important categories must a canine practitioner consider prior to the treatment of a dog?
2	How does the skin of the dog fundamentally differ to that of a human?
3	What are the main functions of the skin?
4	When is the earliest time after surgery you should consider applying MSTR® for Dogs and in what circumstances may you have to wait longer?
5	A) What is the MAXIMUM treatment time for both small and larger scars using MSTR® for Dogs? B) Why should the maximum treatment times not be exceeded?
6	How does collagen in scar tissue arrange itself and how does MSTR® work improve this arrangement?
7	List the contraindications to the use of MSTR® for Dogs.
8	Blood and lymph flow often increase in and around a scar when using MSTR® for Dogs. Why?
9	List some of the signs a dog may exhibit if it is stressed, angry or afraid during your treatment:
10	What should you do if the dog exhibits signs of fear or aggression?
11	Why is every scar considered to be a trauma?
12	Besides the treatment of scar tissue, what other types of conditions may MSTR® for Dogs be applied?
13	The MSTR® move itself is quite rapid. Why?
14	Describe the optimum pressure at which MSTR® for Dogs should be applied. In what circumstances might this pressure be adjusted?
15	List three ways in which the scar is often positively affected by MSTR® for Dogs treatment.
16	Describe how a dog's behaviour may indicate a positive response to MSTR® during the treatment session.
17	What is "informed consent" and why must you receive this from the animal guardian?
18	How might the trauma and resulting scar affect the dog psychologically?
19	Describe what underlying scar tissue feels like.
20	What considerations should you make about your personal grooming and your working environment when treating dogs?
	Any other comments: